Blaine Dismisses His Famous Libel Suit, Vowing that He Fears Hooster Justice.

The Chicago Fraud--A Cincinnati Hanging--A Train Wrecked--A Burning Town.

Blaine's Libel Suit Suddenly Drops.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—Blaine this morning dismissed the libel suit against the Sentinel in the United States court. The principal ground was that he could not get justice in Indiana. It was set for trial on the 23d inst.

The following is Blaine's letter to the attorneys, instructing them to dismiss the case:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 10. To Messrs. Harrison & Miller, counselors at law:

Gentlemen: When I requested you in August last to bring suit against the publishers of the Indianapolis Sentinel for libel, I did so in the belief that the wrong done me by that paper being entirely of a personal and domestic character could be without undue influence from political consideration. I confess I was amazed to find the matter at once taken up and the libel reproduced with all possible exaggeration in every democratic paper in Indiana. Except from three members of the democratic party of that state I never heard that word of dissent or disapproval was spoken, while the great mass of the democratic speakers repeated the libel from every stump in Indiana with vindictive rancor, with glib and ritualized. It was thus made, so far as any matter of this kind can be made, an issue in an exciting political campaign and the democrats of the state were thoroughly poisoned in their minds in regard to the question to be decided by law.

Under such conditions it is simply impossible that I can have a fair trial or that I can expect any other result than that which informally attends a libel suit growing out of an exciting campaign in this country. If I were unfair enough to desire a jury composed of my own partisans, I could not have it. A properly constituted jury in Indiana would be composed of members of both political parties in about equal proportions. When I visited Indiana in October I was repeatedly advised that six democrats could not be found in the state who, in a political suit, would give a verdict against their leading party organ. This did not necessarily survey an individual upon their personal integrity as citizens, but simply that the blinding of party prejudice would utterly prevent an impartial consideration of the evidence submitted. I am perfectly able to fight the Sentinel in an Indiana court but I would stand no chance whatever against the consolidated venom of the democratic party in the state. With these surroundings and with this prospect it is idle for me to go through the trouble and annoyance of a trial.

The questions propounded by the bill of discovery have already been substantially and fully answered by me and I am willing to leave my written statement and answers under oath to the judgment of the public. I do not choose to have the case indirectly concluded by a technicality or suffered to die in silence. I prefer to make this frank and open statement of the reason which induced me to believe the prosecution of the case would be utterly fruitless.

Very respectfully,
JAMES G. BLAINE.

Congressman.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Ingalls presided over the senate to-day.

The bill making temporary provisions for the naval service was reported by Hale from the naval committee. He gave notice that he would endeavor to call it up to-morrow.

Lapham presented a remonstrance against the ratification of the Nicaragua treaty, but Sherman raised a point of order that the treaty was executive business, had not been ordered published and remonstrances should be presented in executive session. Lapham thereupon withdrew.

Cookrell, from the committee on military affairs, reported adversely a petition of the members of George Strong post, G. A. B., of Fairfield, Iowa. The petition prayed that the surplus in the treasury be used to make up to the soldiers and sailors of the late war the amount lost to them by reason of the depreciation in money in which they were paid from 1862 to 1865, which amounted to nearly half the monthly pay. The petition adds that the United States government is in honor bound to grant this prayer.

A resolution was agreed to calling upon the secretary of state to communicate to the senate all accessible information regarding the extent and character of the foreign trade with Mexico, the Central and South American states, Cuba, Porto Rico and San Domingo, to include, if possible, detailed statement of the value and character of manufactured and other articles comprising imports and exports of such states and countries as regards the United States.

HOUSE.

The house was called to order by Springer, of Illinois as speaker pro tem. The bill passed amending section 3,940 of the revised statutes relating to the forwarding of mail matter. It authorizes the postmasters to forward matter of the second, third and fourth class on which postage has once been paid in full. This rule is now in force in regard to mail matter of the first class.

A Train Wrecked.

POUGHKEEPS, New York, Dec. 16.—The Atlantic express, bound south, on the West Shore road crashed into a slide of rocks half a mile north of Highlands opposite this city, at five o'clock this morning. The train was composed of the engine, baggage car, smoker, two day coaches, four sleepers. One sleeper, two day coaches and the baggage and smoking cars were burned. The fireman, James Gorman, had his right leg broken and two passengers in the smoking car were badly injured and taken to Kingston. All the rest escaped with slight bruises. Both tracks were obstructed and trains were delayed.

Five passengers are said to be beelily injured by the accident but it is impossible to ascertain their names as the railroad officials are very reticent. Fireman James Gorman lies in a critical condition. Dr. Laramer thinks his injuries are fatal. The accident was a very miraculous one as had the train jumped the track on the outside instead of the inside the whole train would have gone to the bottom of the Hudson river. Engineer John Dignan received slight scalp wounds.

Fire.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Dec. 16.—At an early hour this morning fire destroyed Shriver's book store, Koll's jewelry store, Fridline's clothing store and the office of the borough's solicitor. Loss, $6,000; partly insured.

WONDERFOOT, N. B., Dec. 16.—Fire last night started in McDonald's tailor shop and before subdued destroyed three wooden and two brick buildings on Main street. Loss, $20,000.

A TOWN IN FLAMES.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 16.—A Newport, Ark., special, 3 a. m., says, "Town in flames. Seven two-story brick buildings burning. News printing office in ruins."

Young Stein Again Arrested—A Thief Escapes.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Orth H. Stein, charged with the murder of George Fredericks at Kansas City and out on bail to await a second trial, was arrested here last night on the statement that his bail had been declared forfeited. He went to Kansas City.

Lawrence Beattie, the notorious thief and ex-convict and upon whose testimony the police expected to make their charge against Michael Coleman for the murder of Police Officer Mahoney here in 1881, escaped from his cell in the central police station Monday night, but the fact was not discovered until this morning. Coleman was under arrest at east St. Louis.

The Condition of Trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16.—The secretary of the American Iron and Steel association says he has just returned from an extended trip to Pittsburgh and other points on the Pennsylvania railroad and its connections and must frankly say he found most branches of business in a very depressed condition, although there is a notable absence of the hopeless feeling among the people which prevailed in the years following the panic of 1873.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 16.—Notice of a 10 per cent reduction in wages after the 27th inst. has been given the workmen in the New Jersey steel and iron works, of this city.

He Met Death, But Not Bravery.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16.—John B. Hoffman was hanged this morning in the jail yard for the murder of his son in January, 1882. He wept while listening to the death warrant and begged piteously to not be "downed in the papers." He had to be held up while being handcuffed and was supported by two men on the scaffold while the noose was being adjusted. He made no speech.

The Election Fraud.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 16.—The parties charged with participation in the Eighteenth ward election frauds were before Judge Blodgett, in the federal court, this morning. In the case of all except Gleason motions were made to quash the indictments, and Friday was set for the argument of this motion. Gleason was allowed until Thursday to plead.

No Grain for Maine.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The agents of the steamship lines in New York denied this morning that any vessels were unusually overdue at this time of the year. The regular time had not expired, if the weather has been as heavy as now reported.

Shot a Trump.

HUNTER'S POINT, L. I., Dec. 16.—A report from Rockville Center states that Mrs. Senly Sprague had shot dead a tramp or burglar who entered the house last night and demanded money and threatened her. The story is that when the man demanded money she went to the bureau, got the pocketbook in one hand and a revolver in the other, and while handing him the pocketbook shot him dead.

Opening of the Exposition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—There was considerable delay in the opening of the New Orleans exposition to-day. A large crowd of distinguished people had gathered at the white house and every arrangement was made for the president to open the exposition in appropriate style. The president took his station at the telegraph table and remained standing there, surrounded by his cabinet, for over half an hour before the signal that everything was in readiness was received by the telegraph operator. The crowd became impatient and many left the building before the signal was received at half-past 2 o'clock, and in a few moments the address of President Richardson, of the exposition, was received.

THE OPENING.

EXPOSITION GROUNDS, NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 16.—The day of the inauguration of the ceremonies at the World's Exposition, opened bright and cheerful and thousands of people made preparations early in the morning to witness the long expected event. Every public and private building along the principal streets was decorated more or less elaborately.

At 11 o'clock Gov. McEnery of Louisiana, Major General Glynn, commanding the state militia and members of the state legislature, foreign consuls and several hundred invited guests assembled at the St. Charles hotel for the purpose of proceeding to the exposition grounds. The procession formed consisting of a battalion of Washington artillery under Col. Richardson, Continental guards, all of full stature of six feet and led by Captain Brown and the Crescent rifles under Captain Falgout as escort. Among the distinguished persons present are Governor Hamilton and staff, of Illinois; Governor Knott, of Kentucky; Goldworthy, of British Honduras; Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn; ex-Governors Morton and Voorhees, of Louisiana, and others. In carriages and a long column on foot in regular order of procession and headed by the celebrated Mexican band the cortege moved through the crowded streets towards the river at the head of Canal street. The procession, in which were the official guests of the exposition, went on board the steamer "Fred A. Banks" and she, at 12:30 p. m., steamed up to the grounds to the wharf built from the exposition grounds. The Washington artillery began firing a salute of 100 guns and the procession moved toward the spacious building where the inauguration ceremonies were carried out in accordance with the previously arranged program.

Hogs Feeding on a Corpse.

GREENFIELD, Dec. 16.—Matthew Enright, a farmer living in Buck Creek township, was found dead in his barn at noon yesterday. Hogs had eaten his face and body so that it was difficult to recognize him. He left his house early in the morning to milk cows and not returning, the family instituted search, with the above result. It is supposed his death was caused by heart disease. The coroner will hold an inquest.

LOCAL LINES.

Sleighting is excellent now. The monthly meeting of the Arion Singing society occurs to-night.

Master Mechanic Barnes is west on an inspection tour over the Wabash.

F. W. Jordan, of the Pleasant Valley distillery, is the guest of the McKinnie house.

William Wike, of Bluffton, and M. S. Cunningham, of Durkatt, are guests of the Mayer house.

The Platt Deutscher Frits Reuter Varien me to to-night at Fred Hollenbeck's house of call, to elect officers.

Mrs. George Beau, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McKinnie, returned to her home at Chicago to-day.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road has petitioned the New York stock exchange to list $1,236,000 betterment stock.

The Rents-Sandley troupe of twenty-two people are stopping at the Mayer house. They came from Lafayette this afternoon.

Charley Carrier has resigned his position in the Western Union telegraph office. This is in accordance with an order to cut down the force of workmen here.

T. P. Kenton is bound to lose no friends by reason of the late campaign and has called on the democratic editors in this district to put the hatchet under earth. Mr. Kenton is a clever, brilliant fellow.

Mrs. White-Healy, wife of Rev. Dr. J. W. Healy, of Riverside, Cal., has donated $10,000 to found a White professorship in Sierra Madre college, at Pasadena, Cal. Dr. Healy is the father of Frank J. Healy, city editor of the Gazette.

Hattie Hanson filed an affidavit in Hays' court against Caroline Redding, of Monroeville, for provocation. The woman heard of the constable's coming and and going before the justice of that place plead guilty to the charge and paid her fine.

Messrs. Rockhill, Berghoff and Jockel, the efficient city officers, have completed the tax duplicate for 1884 and after next Monday Treasurer Berghoff will be ready to receive taxes for the year just drawing to a close. In February Mr. Berghoff is compelled by law to sell the real estate on which the tax for 1883 has not been paid.

President Montgomery Hamilton will call a meeting of the Jeffersonian club for Friday night to effect a permanent organization. The association will be chartered and members will be required to pay an initiation fee and monthly dues which will go towards maintaining club rooms in the Stutz cafe.

The executive committee of the Saengerfest is it proposed to hold here next year met last night, selected music for the occasion and instructed the secretary to purchase it. H. C. Berghoff will forward invitations to the singing societies of the state inviting and urging their participation in the feast of song. Fort Wayne will entertain the visitors in a royal way.

There has been no reduction of wages in the Olds spoke factory, or any other manufacturing managed by Mr. H. G. Olds. The reduction was in the White spoke factory, and from this crept in the error. It is also a mistake to say that the Olds spoke factory is to be removed, as the ground on which it stands belongs to Mr. Olds. The only property leased by Mr. Olds is the site of the wagon works and before many years he will own that as he is one of the most successful business men in the west and his celebrated wagons now run in every state in the union.

THE COURT HOUSE.

A liquor license was granted yesterday by the commissioners to Frank Wochulker, city.

The superior court was occupied this morning in arranging the docket and setting cases for trial.

The case of Gustave Nusbaum against Max Nirdlinger, in the superior court, was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

The costs in the Ellison case cannot now be estimated, but are heavy, only a small portion of which the county bears.

Liquor licenses were yesterday issued by the auditor to Morris & Wickliffe and to Scheffer & Kalbscher, both in the city.

Morris & Wickliffe and Scheffer & Kalbscher have each paid into the school fund $100 for permits to sell liquor.

G. Nusbaum and Henry Sachs yesterday commenced suit in the superior court against Julia M. and Max Nirdlinger. Demand, $300. Wm. P. Breen is attorney for the plaintiffs.

L. M. Jones has quit claimed to Joseph Trennon and Seraphine Trennon lot 9 of O. E. Bill's subdivision of LaSalle's out lots 4 and 6, in consideration of $1; date of deed, October 25, 1884.

For some time past the safe in the county treasurer's office has been out of repair, the lock refusing to work. For days at a time the door would refuse to open and the money was inaccessible. The repairs have been made and the county's savings bank is again in good condition.

On an affidavit and information filed by Prosecutor Dawson, Henry Hibbler was arraigned in the circuit court yesterday for the theft of a copper boiler. Judge O'Rourke sentenced him to twenty-four hours imprisonment. The boy has an uncle doing a life sentence in the prison north for murder.

The board of commissioners did not visit the county farm and infirmary yesterday as they intended, but instead visited the City hospital. To-day they are inspecting the infirmary and farm and to-morrow they will probably visit the jail and St. Joseph hospital, which will very likely close the special session.

The Healthiest County in the State.

To the Editor of the Sentinel: "Why is this thus?" Indianapolis has 246 doctors; Evansville, 85; Fort Wayne, 64; Terre Haute, 51. In Marion county the death rate in 1,000 inhabitants is 22.10; Vanderburg county, 14.22; Vigo, 7.99; Allen, 2.66. Allen is the healthiest county in the state. In 1883, there were 1,742 deaths in Marion county; 705 in Vanderburg; 642 in Vigo, and 282 in Allen. D. D.

It Will Be Done.

FORT WAYNE, Dec. 16, 1884.

To the Editor of the Sentinel: It is now nearly two months since the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, and as yet not a word from the Jeffersonian club. Why not have a meeting and permanently organize the Jeffersonian club, with a suitable hall for meeting, and thereby continue in the good work so well begun during the campaign? Every body concedes to the Jeffersonians credit for what they have done, and if we organize permanently much good can come from such action, and we hope that some call will be made for such meeting and thereby perpetuate the Jeffersonian club for time to come. Respectfully,

JEFFERSONIAN.

Master Mechanic C. F. Lape, of Mt. Carmel, is in the city.

NOTICE.

State of Indiana, City of Fort Wayne.

To the Treasurer of said City: Whereas, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, at a regular session, held on the 10th day of June, 1884, approved and confirmed a contract prior made by and between said city and William Horstman, contractor, for constructing a brick sidewalk on both sides of Grant street, from Washington street to New Haven Fort Wayne turnpike; And whereas, an estimate was duly made by said City Civil Engineer by the direction of said Common Council, on the 15th day of November, 1884, for the sum of fourteen dollars and fifty cents as the amount due from John C. Marks, the owner of lot numbered seventy-six (76) with a first addition to the city of Fort Wayne;

And whereas, at a meeting of the Common Council, held on the 9th day of December, 1884, the Clerk of said City reported to the Common Council the affidavit of William Horstman, the said contractor, showing to the satisfaction of the Council that the said work had been done according to contract, and that said estimate or assessment had been properly made, and that the said estimate remains unpaid;

And whereas, said Council at said meeting last aforesaid, ordered and directed a precept to be issued for the collection of said sidewalk assessment, which precept was duly issued; And whereas, the said John C. Marks is not found within the City of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Notice is hereby given to the said John C. Marks that unless said assessment, with interest and cost thereon from date of said notice together with all cost and securing costs, are paid within ten days after this notice is filed, I will proceed to sell said lot in white's first addition, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said assessment with interest and cost.

HENRY C. BERGHOFF,

City Treasurer.

Dec. 13, 1884-10, 13, 30.

Mistake Corrected.

We understand that some people have the impression we only sell low priced goods. To such we say, if you want anything in fine goods, and have any knowledge of value, there is a pleasant surprise in store for you if you just look at our stock of black and colored Henry Ortman, manager of Dessauer's cigar factory, now resides in the Second ward. Henry used to be a worker in the Fourth ward.

Charles Schermerhorn, clerk in the office of the Grand Rapids and Indiana superintendent, is out again after an illness of four weeks.

Business in police circles is dead. There has not been an arrest for three days and not a case came up for trial at police court to-day.

The rival bill board companies are at war and the Temple management deny favors to persons connected with Mr. Woodworth's company.

P. J. Fallon tells us that after the first of the year there will be more business in the Wabash shops than at any other time since their construction.

The owners of turf flyers are jogging their horses for the sleighing season and pretty lively work will be seen on Berry street, as the rivalry runs high.

Snow fell sixteen inches deep at Plymouth night before last. The Pittsburg company had to put a big force of men at work to clear away the beautiful.

Hay sells on the market for from $6 to $8 a ton. Wood is not purchased at any price. Local speculators glutted the market and find no demand for the fuel.

This evening the Fort Wayne Bicycle club will open their parlors on the second floor of No. 7 East Main street. A banquet will be a feature of the occasion.

"The Pirates of Penzance" was rehearsed last night by the amateur opera company. Several very pretty voices are in the cast and the season of opera will be popular.

Rudy C. Reinwald, the ex-cigar manufacturer, who has been sick for the past week, is still very low, at the residence of his parents on south Harrison street, with a severe attack of neuritis.

Sir Knight W. W. Rockhill has notified all members of the Fort Wayne commandery of the election Thursday evening. Mr. Rockhill is secretary of the commandery and some day will be grand commander.

There is a marked improvement in the electric light since last Tuesday. The Jenney people now propose to push their incandescent light into popular favor, and several business men are urged to test it as H. C. Graff has.

Trusted Gaffney went out to Mechanism to-day to relieve the wants of a poor family. He found the people almost starved and about to perish from the cold, which came in through crevices in the old rookery they inhabited.

The case of Rosette Wiler vs. the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, in the supreme court, has been set for oral argument January 8. John F. McHugh, of Lafayette, and Oombs, Bell & Morris, of this city, are Mrs. Wiler's attorneys.

L. Miller, a young machinist at the Pittsburg shops, nearly lost an eye yesterday. He was at work on a milling machine, when a flying piece of cast iron struck him just below the right eye. The flesh was cut to the bone, but the wound was bandaged and Miller continued to work.

Rev. T. Demosthenes Weaver goes to Southern Indiana to-night to fill three lecture engagements. Brother Weaver's subject is "The Past, Present and Future of the African Race;" or "We Have to Hustle." THE SENTINEL made Weaver famous and he sends clippings from this journal in advance.

Last evening at Library hall, Deputy Supreme Chancellor Frank J. Gallagher, of Chicago, organized the St. John council of the Catholic Benevolent legion. The following officers were elected: President, Philip J. Singleton; vice president, James Quinn; orator, Frank J. Baker; chancellor, Thomas Meegan; collector, Anthony Martin; treasurer, Patrick J. Carroll; secretary, M. J. Honihan; trustees, Philip Singleton, Thomas Meegan, P. J. Baker.

No one can be ill if the blood is pure. Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, root have long been recognized by blood purifiers. Don't be humbugged by the advertisements of the many quack bitters, but occasionally use Dr. Gray's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will live to a good old age free from all the diseases of mind and body. Many of our best citizens who long suffered from bad blood indicated by weak kidneys, indigestion, sores, aches, etc., owe their recovery to the use of this remedy.

"I Have Suffered!"

With every disease imaginable for the last three years. Our Druggist, T. J. Anderson, recommending "Hop Bitters" to me, I used two bottles. I am entirely cured, and heartily recommend Hop Bitters to every one. J. D. Walker, Buckner, Mo.

I write this as a token of the great appreciation I have of your Hop Bitters. I was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism!!! Seven years, and no medicine seemed to do me any good. I tried two bottles of your Hop Bitters, and to my surprise I am as well to-day as ever I was. I hope "You may have abundant success" in this great and valuable medicine. Anyone wishing to know more about my cure? Can learn by addressing me, E. M. Williams, 1193 16th street, Washington, D. C.

I consider your Bitters the best remedy in existence for indigestion, kidney, and nervous debility. I have just returned from the south in a fruitless search for health, and find that your Bitters are doing me more good than anything else. A month ago I was extremely "Run-down," I could scarcely be able to walk. Now I am gaining strength and flesh. And hardly a day passes but what I am complimented on my improved appearance, and it is all due to Hop Bitters! J. W. Wolfe Jackson, -Wilmington, Del.

None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Beware all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.
